SUFI AND ME
In Memories of?

JOY

Joy is an intense emotion, a sense of happiness, which cannot be accurately described but only experienced. So for me joy is spending quality time with loved ones making them laugh, vibing on my favorite songs, painting huge walls wildly as I can, dressing up, playing with pets and many more.

"Joy is what happens to us when we allow ourselves to"

WEATHER

30°C

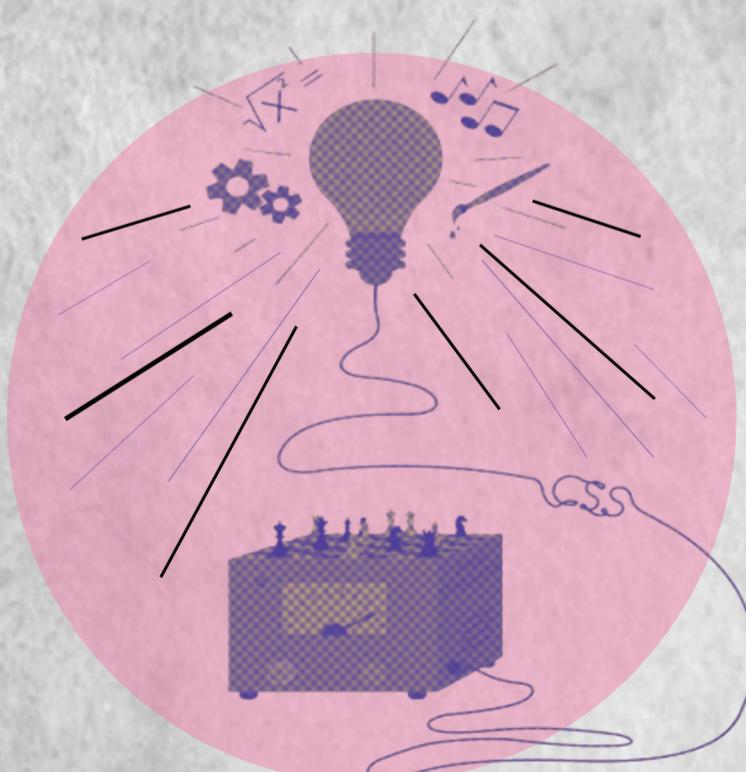

In summer the song sings itself

SKILL

From a personal standpoint, skills are an individual's capabilities gained through personal experiences, training and development. Been in creative field from childhood have obviously developed my drawing and creative skills. Even I can bake or make the food which I personally like the most, apart from this I have skilled been an overthinker.

GROWTH

Growing up can be a challenge the older you get the harder life is you just have to push through it. My personal growth is the best part of me i have experienced it gives me amount of confidence and strength. I have been growing from anger issues and rust issue from childhood.

The past is history,
the future is a mystery,
and this moment is a gift.
That is why this moment is called 'the present'.

LIKES

As a human being, I have definitely my likes and dislikes. As a matter of fact, likes and dislikes differ from man to man. First of all, I have a great love for nature. I feel a closeness with nature. I am reluctant to travel, though I love to look at lovely natural sights. I am not very fond of companions and have very few close friends. I like many things such as like sleeping, swimming, been cuddled etc
